
Curriculum vitae

Pablo Isla

Chairman and CEO of Inditex, one of the world's largest retail fashion companies, holding brands such as Zara.

Mr Isla brings extensive retail experience, with expertise in e-commerce, innovative business and supply chain models, and environmental, social, and governance (ESG) leadership.

Previously, he was co-executive Chairman of Altadis and General Secretary of Banco Popular, after serving as General Manager of Spain's National heritage department of the Treasury. Until 2017 he served on the Board of Directors of global telecommunications company, Telefónica.

Personal

Date of birth: 1964
Nationality: Spanish

Career

2005 – Present	Inditex
2011 – Present	Chairman and Chief Executive Officer (CEO), Spain
2005 – 2011	Chief Executive Officer (CEO), Spain
2000 – 2005	Co-Executive Chairman, Altadis, Spain
1998 – 2000	General Secretary & Executive Member overseeing Finance, IT, HR, Legal, Real Estate and Communications, Banco Popular, Spain
1996 – 1998	General Manager, National Heritage Department of the Treasury Ministry, Government of Spain
1992 – 1996	Group General Counsel, Banco Popular, Spain
1991 – 1992	Official Delegate Commission on International Trade Law, Spanish Government, United Nations, USA
1988 – 1991	Spanish State Attorney, Ministry of Transport, Tourism and Communication, Government of Spain

Education

1987	LLB, Complutense University of Madrid, Spain
1988	Ranked #1 in the Spanish State Attorney Corps
